Also as agreed with your offices, our report provides information on the relevant scientific issues but does not render an opinion on the scientific merits of the reassessment. This report is based primarily on EPA's draft reassessment report dated October 2001, 3 which EPA circulated for internal agency review, and on the two most recent peer reviews of key segments of the draft reassessment in 2000. EPA derived its estimates of human dietary exposure to dioxins in the United States from (1) various studies that chemically analyzed samples of 10 food types, (2) toxicity estimates of the various levels of the individual 2 The National Academies consist of four organizations: the National Academy of Sciences, the National Academy of Engineering, the Institute of Medicine, and the National Research...
