Ms. Mitchell. STATEMENT OF MARY MITCHELL ITCHELL Ms. M. Chairman Platts, Congressman Towns, and mem-bers of the subcommittee, thank you for this opportunity to partici-pate in todays hearing. As the Deputy Associate Administrator for the General Services Administration Office of Technology Strategy and the Financial Systems Integration Office executive, I also serve as the project manager for the financial management line of busi-ness. As you know, Kathleen Turco, GSAs Chief Financial Officer, ap-peared before your subcommittee recently and testified how GSA fully supports the FMLB initiative and is participating in the four work streams that we are undertaking under this years activities. I am also here looking forward to discuss how the initiative has evolved since its inception in 2004 and appreciate your subcommit-tees interest in this important initiative. First, let me address GSAs role in this effort. You asked about our role, and in December 2005 the Financial Systems Integration Office was moved under the GSA Office of Government-wide Policy, formerly known as GFMIP, Joint Financial Improvement Program, it was placed within my office. The financial management line of business responsibility came with that move. GSA was named as the managing partner by OMB and made re-sponsible for the project management, including organizing the work effort, which involves really the entire Federal CIO commu-nity, and seeking to accomplish the schedule set forth by us in the priorities established by OMB and our...
