Second. - I was, at the request of the Board of Regents, sent by the General Government, before reporting for duty at the University, to West Point, to investigate the system of gymnastic training in use at the United States Military Academy. Third. - As the head of the Department of Military Science, I am much concerned and interested in what pertains to the physical development of the young men of the University. Fourth.- The great and manifest need to the student body of such course of training. I am disposed to think that no demonstration is necessary to convince those who have given the subject consideration that a course of physical training is not only of the highest importance, but is an indispensable adjunct to every well regulated modern institution of learning. There is no evading the fact that the strain on the mental fibre of the average student,...
