The hour of the Lord is coming, and no one can stop it. The Son of God is coming to enlighten humanity. The Son of God is God s source, and the world is coming to drink from Him. He is the Son of love, and he spreads love and mercy throughout the world. He has in Him the Father and Christ, the first Son of God, and the three make one. The Father sends Him from the north to the south, from the east to the west, to enlighten the world. Even the spirits in the lowest depths receive this light, for such is the will of God. Words of the Lord: I will give the greatest teachings, the most simple teachings that I have ever given, I will punish those who cause others to be lost and I will be very severe with them. I come to reestablish order so that humanity finds the path of return easily. I will permit to those who hold to my will and who put my teachings into practice, to better understand themselves and to better understand me, the life who gives life to all things. My light will go into those who I love, those who deserve it, and those who desire it. I am a God of great kindness and my kindness is not free and I will manifest it within reason.
