Thus it is that the colored people, in meetings and conventions, are constantly plied with the schemes their public speakers say will lift them up to higher levels. 1. (a) One prominent man will address an assemblage somewhat in this manner: The only way to destroy the prejudice against our race is to become rich. If you have money the white man will respect you. He cares more for the almighty dollar than anything else. Wealth, then, is the only thing by which we can overcome the casta spirit. Therefore, I say, get money; for riches are our only salvation. (b) Another speaker harangues his audience in this manner: OccaMinal Taper No. 2, Amuricun Negro Academy. Brethren, education is the only way to overcome our difficulties. Send your children to school. Give them all the learning you can. To this end you must practice great self-denial. Send them to college, and make them lawyers and doctors. Come out of the barber shops, the eating houses and the kitchens, and get into the professions; and thus you will command the respect of the whites. (c) But now up starts your practical orator. His absorbing fad is labor0 and his address is as follows: My friends, all this talk about learning, all this call for scholars, and lawyers, and doctors for our poor people is nonsense. Industrialism is the solution of the whole Negro problem. The black man must learn to work. We must have Manual Labor...
