Hence, the subject matter has undergone revision, and with additions, and many illustrations, it makes its appearance in book form. In the work of love in which he has been engaged it has been the author s desire to place on permanent record information collected during many years, so as to place this matter in the hands of those who care to interest themselves in these collections and recollections of a Peakland village, and it is to the kind encouragement and assistance of the proprietors of the Derbyshire Courier that this has been made possible. It has, of course, been necessary to consult many publications in order to procure reliable information, and to these the author has laid himself under tribute, especially the journals of the Derbyshire Archaeological Society. And there are others to whom he desires to tender his sincere thanks. To W. H. G. Bagshawe, Esq. J. P., D. L., of Ford Hall, he is indebted for a great deal of valuable information relating to the Apostle of the Peak and early Nonconformity; to Edward G. Bagshawe, Esq., solicitor, Sheffield, for the loan of M.S. of his late father, Benjamin Bagshawe; to Sydney Taylor, Esq., B.A., of Buxton; to N. J. Hughes-Hallett. Esq., Clerk of the Peace, for his courtesy in allowing the inspection of county records; to the Vicars of Hope and...
