By William Taylor

Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Four Years Campaign in India I have not written a history of India, nor of its great Christian Missions, but simply a narrative of what I have felt and seen and done in the East, covering a period of four years and seven months. As far as possible, I have avoided foreign words; but to assist the English reader in pronouncing Hindustani names, I will here explain that a has the sound of short u, as in cut: a the broad sound of ah: i the sound of ee: and u of oo. This short, easy lesson, with its three accented letters illustrated in the word Hindustani, had better be learned at first sight, and then the reader can proceed with a correct pronunciation. A rupee is equivalent to two shillings, or forty-eight cents; an anna is the sixteenth of a rupee; a pice is the fourth, and a pie the twelfth, of an anna.
