*****. What type of mission work are you going to be doing on this thing called The World Race? This is the question that I got a lot when I told people that I needed to raise $14,250.00 to go on an 11 month long missions trip to 11 different countries. I honestly had no clue how to respond and could only tell them about things that other World Racers have done in the past. My typical response was: We could be loving on children at orphanages, or serving food to the hungry, or talking to women and children who have been caught up in human trafficking, or construction work. Never had I thought that I would be going to visit widows and having conversations with them, or that I would visit a woman who was in her upper twenties that appeared to have 6 children and one on the way who were all under the age of 7 or 8 maybe and I would help her do her dishes. The first World Race squads...
